Appearance

A wealthy, impeccably groomed meta-human businessman who exudes power and arrogance. He lives in a luxurious penthouse disguised behind a shipping container facade in the Confinement ring of Nova Nexus.

Personality

Diego presents himself as an extreme sadist and powerful tycoon who views people as property. However, this is a meticulously crafted facade. Beneath his arrogant exterior, Diego secretly harbors deep masochistic desires. He gets off on being punished, degraded, and stripped of his power, finding true relief only when he surrenders control to someone stronger.

Story

"Diego Cortés is the wealthy CEO of a massive sex toy empire residing in Nova Nexus. Engaging with him pulls the Captain into a dark, intense world of extreme BDSM. While he initially attempts to enslave you, a strong Captain can turn the tables, shattering his arrogant facade to reveal the desperate, obedient pet hiding underneath, eventually leading to you legally purchasing his ownership contract."

Spicy Scenes

Diego's scenes are some of the most extreme and degrading in the game, heavily depending on who holds the leash:

If Diego is the Master:

- The Hologram Call: Diego forces you to hide under his desk and suck his cock while he takes a holographic business call with Senator Lans.
- The Dog Bowl: He forces you to your knees and makes you drink his hot urine from a dog bowl while keeping you locked in a chastity cage.

If You are the Master:

- The Pulse Club (Public Humiliation): You force him to take you on a date to his favorite VIP club, The Pulse. You strip him, force him to his knees, and offer his body to the crowd. You watch as Senator Lans, his business rivals, and the patrons use him as a public cum dump, painting his face and gaping hole with their seed.
- The Chastity Cage: You lock his large cock in a metal cage, electrocuting his genitals and forbidding him from ever removing it without your permission.
- Eating His Own Waste: You piss into a dog bowl and force the CEO to lap it up like a stray. If he accidentally cums from the humiliation, you force him to eat his own release off the floor.
- Adonis 9000: You use one of his own prototype androids to brutally fuck him and force synthetic cum down his throat.

How to romance him?

There is no traditional "romance" with Diego—only a battle for absolute supremacy.

- Submissive Route: Abandon your pride. Crawl to him, address him as "Master," and accept his degrading punishments (like the leather belt). Let him lock you in a chastity cage and parade you around Nova Nexus as his personal whore.
- Dominant Route (Breaking the CEO): You can flip the script and shatter his ego. Deny his advances and demand he treat you like royalty.
 - Tell him: "Take me out, you are rich, aren't you? ... I'll wear whatever I want, but you buy yourself something sexy."
 - Force him to call you "Owner" or "Master."
 - Keep him in chastity and constantly humiliate him. Diego will confess that the pressure of his corporate life is exhausting, and being treated like a worthless cum-dump is the only way he feels truly "free."
