

Feraldo

Feraldo

Property
Age	Adult
Birthplace	Unknown Anthro Colony

Property
Occupation	Bounty Hunter
Recruitable	Yes
Species	Anthro (Wolf)
Dick Size	Large / Knotted
Relationship	Master / Pet (Alpha / Omega)
Role	Strict Dominant Top (Alpha)

“ I'm an alpha male born to dominate betas and omegas. You can't change my nature.

Appearance

A massive, hulking Anthro wolf with thick, wild fur and biceps bigger than your head. He wields a large sword and usually wears heavy thaussalite armor.

Personality

Feraldo is a proud "Anthro" who deeply hates Meta-humans. He operates strictly on pack dynamics, referring to himself as an "Alpha" and viewing the Captain as his "Omega" or "puppy". He refuses to submit or bottom, finding the idea unnatural to his genetics. He loves the thrill of the hunt and enjoys it when his prey makes things difficult for him.

Story

"Feraldo is a bounty hunter who ambushes you in the streets of Akra Leuka to collect a 5 million credit bounty placed on your head. However, when he learns that you stole your ship from the Meta-humans—the very species that enslaved and hunted his ancestors—he drops the bounty and joins your crew to fight them."

Spicy Scenes

- The Club Hunt: If you work a shift at the club, you can encounter him in the VIP section looking for "prey." He describes an Anthro game where an omega is placed in a maze, and the alpha who catches them gets the right to impregnate them. (You can also serve him a

"Mass Collapse" drink to immediately knock him out).

- The Grooming Session: In his quarters, Feraldo will drop onto the edge of the bed, shrug off his armor, and toss you a sturdy brush. He forces you to groom his thick chest and back fur while he fucks you, ultimately inflating his massive knot inside you to anchor you in place while he impregnates you.
- The Alleys (Post-Hiring): If you agree to his dynamic, he can ambush you right outside the ship, pinning you to the ground and claiming you as his prize.

How to romance him?

Feraldo's path is strictly locked into a Dominant Alpha / Submissive Omega dynamic.

- Recruitment: When he attacks you in Akra, explain that you stole the ship from the Metas. He will demand 10,000 credits to cover his armor maintenance before officially joining.
- Dominant Route (Impossible): Do not attempt to dominate Feraldo. If you suggest that you hunt him and he submits, he will flatly refuse, stating that his genetics as an Alpha male make it impossible to act as a submissive Omega.
- Submissive Route (Omega Path): To win his favor, you must lean completely into his roleplay. Address him as your Alpha. Run from him so he can hunt you, let him claim you as his "prize," and obey his commands to brush his fur while he uses you.
