“ Having a calm mind is only the first step in studying psychic magic.

Appearance

A massive, imposing snake-man. His upper body is that of a dignified, highly muscular human with dark skin and dark hair, while his lower half consists of the thick, powerful coils of a massive anaconda.

Personality

Hakim presents himself as a serene, calm, and enlightened professor who teaches his students the importance of a blank mind to defend against psychic attacks. However, beneath his meditative exterior, he is incredibly sex-positive, highly perverted, and openly horny. He actively encourages his students to avoid "absurd chastity challenges" to blow off steam, and he uses his advanced psychic abilities to project incredibly vivid, obscene sexual fantasies into the minds of those he finds attractive.

"Hakim is the Professor of Psychic Magic at the University of Magic in Eldor. He is an ancient being who has extended his lifespan through magic over thousands of years. Instead of desks, his classroom is filled with plush cushions where he hovers in the center, teaching his students how to protect their minds—and occasionally pulling them into deeply intimate mental trances."

Spicy Scenes

Hakim seamlessly blends powerful psychic magic with intense sexual encounters:

- The Sunrise Valley (Submissive): You can encounter Hakim wandering the woods of Sunrise Valley. If you drop to your knees, he will eagerly use your mouth. He unloads "thick ropes of cum" directly onto your tongue, his shaft throbbing for a long minute as you eagerly swallow his massive release. He praises you for prioritizing "blowing a stranger" over making conversation.
- The Mental Illusion (Submissive): During a psychic connection in class, Hakim enters your mind. He projects a hyper-realistic illusion where his powerful snake tail coils around you, lifting you up and repeatedly impaling you on his length, using you as his personal "fleshlight" while you gasp in the physical world.
- The Mental Breeding (Dominant): If you take control of the psychic link, you can mentally dominate the ancient professor. You project a fantasy where you relentlessly pound him, filling his trembling body with an impossible volume of your seed. The illusion is so strong that Hakim's normally toned abdomen physically distends and swells obscenely as if he were pregnant. When you open your eyes, the professor is left sweating, flushed, and unable to speak due to the obscenities running through his head.
- The Private Massage: If you visit his classroom after hours, you can ask for help relaxing. He will strip both of you naked, rubbing soothing oils over your chest while his hard dick presses into the pillows beneath him.

How to romance him?

Hakim is very casual, straightforward, and highly receptive to both dominant and submissive advances.

- Classroom Practice: Visit him in his cushion-filled classroom between 15:00 and 18:00. Asking him for help relaxing leads to intimate massages and physical escalation.
 - Top / Dominant Route: When performing the psychic "number guessing" exercise with him, seize control of the mental link. Instead of letting him dominate your mind, force your own dominant fantasies onto him. Mentally breeding him and stretching his stomach with your seed shatters his serene professor facade, leaving him panting and completely submissive to your psychic prowess.
 - Bottom / Submissive Route: Surrender to his hypnotic coils in the mental projection, or seek him out in the Sunrise Valley and eagerly drop to your knees to swallow his massive loads without asking questions.
