Personality

Isaac is an exceptional leader, described as pragmatic, intelligent, and fiercely loyal to his crew. He has a sense of humor, even moments after being resurrected. Story

Isaac is the former captain of the ship, who was presumed dead after Rylan threw him out of an airlock. His body is discovered floating in space by the player's crew and brought aboard. Arthur, an old friend, identifies him and, with the player's help, revives him using a special meta-serum created with an essence hibiscus flower from Harmonia.

Upon his revival, Isaac confronts his past, settling the score with Rylan and offering a path to redemption for Bradley, who was truly responsible for his "death." Depending on the player's choices, Isaac can either become a co-captain, sharing leadership of the ship, or act as a trusted advisor. He is a central figure in the conflict against the meta-humans from Paradise.
